

CONCERT DETAILS

WHERE:

Knights Of Columbus Good
Samaritan Council
401 W Holly Ave.
Sterling, VA 20164
703-430-6789

WHEN:

7:30pm. Wednesday
April 14th, 2010

TICKETS:

This is a free
concert sponsored by Good Samaritan
Council 6175

To help defray
touring expenses,
donations will be greatly appreciated.

For directions to the venue
go to the Good Samaritan Council website @
www.goodsams.org

Agnew & McAllister Duo

MUSIC FROM AROUND THE WORLD

Featured on their debut CD RECITAL

The Agnew and McAllister Duo present a special concert at Knights Of Columbus (Good Samaritan Council), 401 W Holly Ave. Sterling, VA, featuring a wide variety of beautiful and virtuosic music from around the globe, as featured on their debut CD 'Recital'.

This Flute and Guitar Duo have been performing together for almost ten years and have given concerts in many European countries as well as North and South America.

Aisling Agnew comes from Ireland and Matthew McAllister from Scotland. They will include some traditional Celtic pieces in their program.

The program which they had assembled was perfectly chosen - something old, something modern, something quite unknown, and a classic of the repertoire, all played with skill and insight by two gifted young musicians who have already made names for themselves individually and whose artistic rapport as a duo brought something quite special to the music."

THE COURIER

